

FOR PRESIDENT,
BENJAMIN HARRISON OF INDIANA.

VICE PRESIDENT,
LEVI P. MORTON
OF NEW YORK.

IRRIGATION.

Now that the question of storage reservoirs is being agitated, it would be well for the citizens of the Western part of the State to consider what they can do this winter in the way of progress and improvement.

The APPEAL has an idea that the counties of Douglas, Lyon, Ormsby, Storey, Esmeralda and Churchill might combine on an irrigation scheme, which would be of great benefit to all concerned.

Let these counties issue bonds to the extent of say $200,000, to run 25 years at 6 per cent. Spend $50,000 on a big storage reservoir, somewhere along the Carson river, and $100,000 more in canals and ditches.

Let the selling of the water be under the supervision of the county authorities, and sell the water at a stipulated rate, each county paying for the ditches and canals within its borders.

The tax to pay for these bonds need not exceed 15 cents on the 100 and the rentals collected for the water would absorb the bonds.

Before the various counties issued the bonds, the proper proportion of the $200,000 could be divided up pro rata, and the county not approving of the bonds at a special election could be stricken out of the scheme entirely.

In a few years a vast stretch of country would be made a garden spot of, and if the experiment proved successful, other counties thrown together by the natural lay of the country could adopt the same plan.

Storey county, while not using a drop of the water, would be benefited as much as any other section, as a full head of water to run the mills means 800 more men employed in Virginia City during the summer months.

The APPEAL believes that such a scheme would put this section of the country on its feet and enable every waste acre of land to be profitably cultivated.

This is of course only a general outline of a scheme which if carried out would double the value of all property in the counties named, but the plan of course would be subject to such modifications as might be suggested by a public discussion of the subject.

THE NEW CHINESE TREATY.

The New Chinese Restriction Bill just passed by the House is a bill supplementary to an Act to execute certain treaty stipulations relating to the Chinese, approved May 6, 1882.

Section 1. Provides that from and after the passage of the Act it should be unlawful for any Chinese laborer who should at any time heretofore have been or who may now or hereafter be a resident within the United States, and who shall have departed or should depart therefrom and should not have returned before the passage of this Act, to return to the United States.

Section 2. Provides that no certificates indentify, provided for in the fourth and fifth sections of the Act to which this is a supplement, should hereafter be issued, and every certificate heretofore issued in pursuance thereof is hereby declared void and of no effect, and the Chinese laborer claiming admission by virtue thereof shall not be permitted to enter the United States.

Section 3. Provides that all duties prescribed and liabilities, penalties and forfeitures prescribed by the second, tenth, eleventh and twelfth sections of the Act to which this is a supplement are hereby extended, and made applicable to the provisions of this Act.

Section 4. Provides that all such part or parts of the Act to which this is a supplement as are inconsistent herewith are repealed.
